

Senior Mechanical Engineer/Project Manager

Job Description:

- Seeking a Senior Mechanical Engineer with minimum 5 years of experience, PE required
- Knowledge of Revit, strong communication skills and ability to work independently and in a team environment
- Previous time with project leadership experience is desired, basically looking for someone that has spent time as the Engineer of Record

Work Environment:

- 4 x 9 hour shifts and 4 hours on Friday
- Informal/open office, collaborative environment
- Small office of a midsize firm
- Flexibility, juggling multiple projects at a time
- Cutting edge tools of the industry
- Family environment, looking for someone more senior

Best vs. Average:

- Best is someone with a strong knowledge base (Industry knowledge (all types) - Education facilities, health Care, Commercial, Manufacturing, etc)
- Sound people skills/personality; someone with the ability to put the client at ease by speaking in layman's terms but still being able to understand the high level processes
- An architectural/engineering background/degree with an understanding of MEP, construction, and architecture as a whole

Additional Compensation:

- Full benefits package: health - 100% of employee is paid, contributory for family
- Vision, dental
- 401K with 6% match
- 4 weeks of PTO (negotiable)